23rd June 2024

Encouraging connection between the Divine and the everyday. 5th Sunday after Pentecost

Sentence of Scripture

Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? Mark 4.41

Prayer of the Day

O God our defender,
storms rage about us
and cause us to be afraid:
rescue your people from despair,
deliver your sons and daughters from fear,
and preserve us all from unbelief;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Hope25 Collect

God of Hope you call on us to be your witnesses in this uncertain world;
by your Spirit awaken in us
a true vision of your kingdom,
a greater certainty of our salvation, and
a deeper dedication to your service;
that through our words and actions the same Spirit may bring many who are lost to be found,
and for them to celebrate the hope that we can only have in Jesus Christ,
in whose name we pray. Amen

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

David said to Saul, 'Let no one's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.' Saul said to David, 'You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.' But David said to Saul, 'Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.' David said, 'The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.' So Saul said to David, 'Go, and may the Lord be with you!' Saul clothed David with his armour; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. David strapped Saul's sword over the armour, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, 'I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them.' So David removed them. Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd's bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine. The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. The Philistine said to David,

‘Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?’ And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, ‘Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.’ But David said to the Philistine, ‘You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This very day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord’s and he will give you into our hand.’ When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly towards the battle line to meet the Philistine. David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground. 1 Samuel 17.32-49

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 9.9-20

The Lord is a strong tower to those that are oppressed:

he is a tower of strength in time of need.

All who heed your name will trust in you:

for you have never forsaken those that seek you.

O sing praises to the Lord who dwells in Zion:

tell among the peoples what great things he has done.

For he that avenges blood has remembered the poor:

he has not forgotten their cry.

The Lord has been merciful toward me,

he saw what I suffered from my foes:

he raised me up again from the gates of death,

That I might tell all your praises in the gates of Zion:

that I might rejoice in your deliverance.

The nations have sunk into the pit they dug for others:

in the very snare they laid is their foot taken;

The Lord has declared himself and upheld the right:

the wicked are trapped in the work of their own hands.

The wicked shall be given over to death:

and all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not always be forgotten:

nor shall the hope of the poor perish for ever.

Arise, Lord, let no human power prevail:

let the nations be judged before you.

Put them in fear, O Lord:

and let the nations know they are but human.

A Reading from The Second Letter to the Corinthians

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

For he says,

‘At an acceptable time I have listened to you,

and on a day of salvation I have helped you.’ See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labours, sleepless nights, hunger;

by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left;

in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true;

as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed;

as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you.

There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours.

In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also. 2 Corinthians 6.1-13

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, ‘Let us go across to the other side.’ And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, ‘Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?’ He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, ‘Peace! Be still!’ Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, ‘Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?’ And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, ‘Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?’ Mark 4.35-41

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection:

In the middle of chaos and anxiety, Jesus tells the sea to be still in order for the disciples to be calm. Nonetheless, it was not easy for the disciples to appreciate that they had no need to fear because Jesus was with them.

- Help me, Lord, to know that I need have no fear if Jesus is at my side,
- Give thanks for all those who donate so generously to ABM and AID. May God bless them for their open-handed and open-hearted generosity.

St Paul's has had a busy week! We catered for one wake, and helped at another. Several tradies visited to sort quotes for building repairs, and Pentac security installed smoke detectors in all areas except the cathedral (too high a ceiling!) Christine completed the insulation in the hall ceiling gaps, and one kind tradie removed 2 dead rats which you may have been smelling this year! Rob T was very obliging with the times he cleaned, and recleaned! Peter M moved a cupboard from Mavis House so the flower ladies finally have their own area to store everything. The Office area is finally (!!!) tidy, after months since the rotting desk and flower cupboard were removed due to water leaking. Liz and Lyn have been slaving away in the Youth hut sorting books and they have caught up on their overflow pile in the Kids room. The final lot of books went to St Vinnies in Lakes Entrance recently, so the large books remaining can now be all moved to and sorted in the Container.
We ARE accepting books, DVDs and CDs, spread the word!

Please note: the touch pad to alarm the vestry has changed and you will need to be shown how to use it. As 3G is no more, we had to upgrade the hardware and software, so now when the alarm is triggered by motion, (forgetting to turn it off!) or smoke, people with the App can remotely turn it off. They will also be able to see you, and talk to you in the vestry via a camera on loan, so stay there and smile for the camera if you get confused and accidentally set it off! Be patient, we are all on a learning curve!

June Mission of the Month – The Mission to Seafarers

Time to get the knitting needles out!

See the display in the foyer for more information, including about knitting beanies and scarves. Or go to: <https://www.mts.org.au/>

Sea Sunday is 14th July, when we will collect the knitted items. Monetary donations can also be made by placing funds in an envelope marked Mission to Seafarers and putting in the collection bag at church.

Hope25 is a project led by the General Synod that is an intentional season of sharing hope in Jesus. It is being held from Easter Day to Pentecost 2025 and will be launched this Pentecost Sunday, 19th May. We have an opportunity in this uncertain world to share our hope in Jesus and ask for your prayers for Hope25.

Free Screening: Learning Together Doco + Cuppa, 'The Warrigal Creek Massacre' Documentary

TODAY: Sunday 23rd June 2pm at St Paul's Cathedral.

As part of National Reconciliation Week activities, people across Gippsland are invited to attend a free screening of the 2018 documentary film, The Warrigal Creek Massacre to strengthen their understanding of this event that took place in Gippsland in 1843. With support from Director Lisa Gye, Gippsland Anglicans are proud to support greater awareness of the truth of settlement in our region, and to support reconciliation with First Nations peoples through respectful truth-telling and truth-hearing.

On Sunday 23rd June, seven Gippsland parishes are hosting a free screening of the 53-minute documentary, followed by a cuppa to allow people time to discuss the film and share their thoughts. The documentary is not available elsewhere.

The documentary film uses an interview format and explores historical documents to piece together the truth of a terrible crime committed against Gunaikurnai people in 1843 to which justice was never applied. There are no distressing scenes depicted, however violent acts are described at times.

Viewer discretion is advised and is not recommended for young children.

The Warrigal Creek Massacre

A documentary film directed by Andrew Dodd and Lisa Gye, 2018.

"It's probably one of the most important sites in Victorian history at least, and a substantial site in Australian history. It's only sort of creeping into our history books now."

– Peter Gardner
Historical Advisor

SUNDAY, 23rd JUN (times vary)

GATHER at your nearest Host Parish to view a screening of the 2018 documentary film of the Gippsland story, The Warrigal Creek Massacre. The documentary interviews an array of people and explores historical documents to piece together the truth of a terrible crime committed against Gunaikurnai people in 1843. Running time: 53 minutes.

STAY for a cuppa and afternoon tea with other viewers, to discuss the film and deepen your knowledge of Gippsland history.
