A Reading from the Book of Daniel

As I watched, thrones were set in place,

and an Ancient One took his throne;

his clothing was white as snow,

and the hair of his head like pure wool;

his throne was fiery flames,

and its wheels were burning fire.

A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence.

A thousand thousand served him,

and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.

The court sat in judgement,

and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions,

I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.

And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him.

To him was given dominion and glory and kingship,

that all peoples, nations, and languages

should serve him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion

that shall not pass away,

and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed. Daniel 7.9-10, 7.13-14

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

I will give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart:

even before the gods will I sing your praises.

I will bow down toward your holy temple

and give thanks to your name:

because of your faithfulness and your loving-kindness,

for you have made your name and your word

supreme over all things.

At a time when I called to you, you gave me answer:

and put new strength within my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord:

for they have heard the words of your mouth;

And they shall sing of the ways of the Lord:

that the glory of the Lord is great.

For though the Lord is exalted, he looks upon the lowly:

and he comprehends the proud from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of danger,

yet will you preserve my life:

you will stretch out your hand against the fury of my enemies, and your right hand shall save me.

The Lord will complete his purpose for me:

your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever;

do not forsake the work of your own hands.

A Reading from The book of Revelation

And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon.

The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming,

‘Now have come the salvation and the power

and the kingdom of our God

and the authority of his Messiah,

for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down,

who accuses them day and night before our God.

But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb

and by the word of their testimony,

for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.

Rejoice then, you heavens

and those who dwell in them!

But woe to the earth and the sea,

for the devil has come down to you with great wrath,

because he knows that his time is short!' Revelation 12.7-12a

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Philip found Nathanael and said to him, 'We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.' Nathanael said to him, 'Can anything good come out of Nazareth?' Philip said to him, 'Come and see.' When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, 'Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!' Nathanael asked him, 'Where did you come to know me?' Jesus answered, 'I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.' Nathanael replied, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!' Jesus answered, 'Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.' And he said to him, 'Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.' John 1.45-51

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection:

Christianity.com says that in an era of moral and ethical challenges, the Archangel Michael's example of unwavering devotion to God's will is a source of inspiration and strength.

- At a time when I called to you (my God), you gave me answer: and put new strength within my soul.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia

Dean's Doings

This week the bishop has been on leave, which has meant my focus has mostly been parish-based, spending time with a number of folk pastorally.

Kate presided at the annual National Police Remembrance Day service on Friday. This year saw the largest attendance of recent years, with about 90 folk coming to remember those police service personnel who have lost their lives in the line of duty. I attended the service and noted the warmth and fondness in how police personnel responded to Kate - a testament to her faithful ministry in their midst as a police chaplain.

On Saturday, at the very time of the Grand Final, we ran a Safe Ministry workshop. My apologies for the timing, for those who need to do the training but felt the pull of "the other religion". We'll make sure there's another opportunity for a face to face session at some stage soon, and once the system is back up online, I'll reshare the link for those who wish to do the online training instead.

In a few weeks' time I'll be taking three weeks of leave, and in that time as I've mentioned before Clem and Stuart Taplin will be here as locums (and cat-sitting for me). Here's a link to an article about Clem's ministry experience: How an archbishop's daughter found her own calling \(melbourneanglican.org.au\). I wasn't able to find a corresponding article about Stuart - which probably also tells you something about his unassuming, faithful ministry over a long, long time... I hope that, past the excitement of the Pet Blessing and 140th service, you'll all be able to welcome Clem and Stuart warmly.

Lastly, today we say thank you and farewell to Canon David Head, who has so generously shared his gifts and ministry with us over the last few years. We pray that David's next adventure will be full of blessings as he continues to be such a blessing to others.

A huge thank you to those who took advantage of the good weather this week to tidy up the meditation garden which was overgrown and a bit unloved. It's definitely looking more loved - and the cross is now visible near the fountain. Thanks to Christine, Claire, David, Rob, and Tony.

Busy bees! (and not just the ones in the flowers!)

Liz and Lyn were busy sorting some of the many books that have been arriving of late, including many leftovers from the Leongatha Anglican book Sale.

Rob S once again helped move packed boxes into the over half full container. Claire dug out a number of huge rooted grasses that first had had a haircut thanks to Rob and his hedge clipper. Nancy and Karl catered for Friday. Thanks Bees!
