Cathedral Parish Vision: People of Christian faith – 27th October 2024
Encouraging connection between the Divine and the everyday. St. Simon and St. Jude

Sentence of Scripture

Jesus said, 'You did not choose me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide.' John 15.16

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God,

you have built your Church on the foundation of the apostles and prophets,
with Jesus Christ himself as the chief cornerstone:

we thank you for the apostles Simon and Jude, and we pray that we may reveal your love and mercy, and being joined in unity of spirit may grow into a holy temple, acceptable to you; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Hope25 Collect

God of Hope you call on us to be your witnesses in this uncertain world;
by your Spirit awaken in us
a true vision of your kingdom, a greater certainty of our salvation, and a deeper dedication to your service;
that through our words and actions the same Spirit may bring many who are lost to be found,
and for them to celebrate the hope that we can only have in Jesus Christ,
in whose name we pray. Amen

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;

let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

May my teaching drop like the rain,

my speech condense like the dew;

like gentle rain on grass,

like showers on new growth.

For I will proclaim the name of the Lord ;

ascribe greatness to our God!

The Rock, his work is perfect, and all his ways are just.

A faithful God, without deceit,

just and upright is he; Deuteronomy 32.1-4

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19.1-6

The heavens declare the glory of God:

and the firmament proclaims his handiwork;

One day tells it to another:

and night to night communicates knowledge.

There is no speech or language:

nor are their voices heard;

Yet their sound has gone out through all the world:

and their words to the ends of the earth.

There he has pitched a tent for the sun:

which comes out as a bridegroom from his chamber,

and rejoices like a strong man to run his course.

Its rising is at one end of the heavens,

and its circuit to their farthest bound:

and nothing is hidden from its heat.

A Reading from Jude

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are called, who are beloved in God the Father and kept safe for Jesus Christ: May mercy, peace, and love be yours in abundance. Beloved, while eagerly preparing to write to you about the salvation we share, I find it necessary to write and appeal to you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. But you, beloved, must remember the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; for they said to you, 'In the last time there will be scoffers, indulging their own ungodly lusts.' It is these worldly people, devoid of the Spirit, who are causing divisions. But you, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God; look forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on some who are wavering; save others by snatching them out of the fire; and have mercy on still others with fear, hating even the tunic defiled by their bodies. Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to make you stand without blemish in the presence of his glory with rejoicing, to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time and now and for ever. Amen.

Jude 1.1-3, 1.17-25

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Now during those days he went out to the mountain to pray; and he spent the night in prayer to God. And when day came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles: Simon, whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was called the Zealot, and Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. Luke 6.12-16

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection:

Legend has it that Simon (Jesus' cousin) the Zealot & Jude (Thaddeus) share the same feast day as they were both martyred in Persia. Jude is the patron saint of hope and renewal.

* We pray for the Saints celebrated today, Simon & Jude, and all the other Saints in our lives, past and present. Like them, may we make a difference in people's lives as we offer and show them the Word of God.

* Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.

TAPLINS' CHATTER – from the joint Locum Deans

Dear friends of the Cathedral parish,

What a delight and privilege it has been to come amongst you, to share in your mission with Christ in Sale and beyond, and to touch personal journeys where possible in this short stay. What a busy place you are!

It was humbling to lead worship at the Cathedral last Sunday and at Kilmany, as well as to participate in Wednesday and Friday gatherings. We have been drawn into your local U3A, the CWCI (Christian Women Communicating International) to hear speakers, through your keen involvement in local community interests.

We find your lakes, surrounds and parks are such a gift to stretch our legs and learn their stories. Congratulations to all who care for your attractive and historic buildings and surrounds. Much time and elbow grease was given to cleaning and restoring the Cathedral in the past week in several consecutive periods! The vital roof slate work had offered its subsequent dislodgement of decades of cascading rafter dust!

Books for the valuable January book fair continue to be sorted by a faithful two. We know this is a ministry that could be enjoyed together, with some more practical hands if you could give some energy to it.

Sue Hopkins' funeral was a great thanksgiving for her life and service in church and community. We are learning of the long period of grief for many of you linked with those who have died in recent times in love and grace. May we all continue to offer support and prayer as Christ offers us resurrection life.

Well done to all of you in your small and large ministries; many of which are often unseen. May you know that each of you are treasured by God who in Jesus, seeks always to meet us in our depths and enable our gifts to be celebrated.

With our prayers and best wishes for the days ahead.

Clem and Stewart

Please contact Kate, Heather or the Church office in the event of urgent pastoral needs.

Sue's eulogy ended with words she had written: 'I have done my best with what I had. Our Lord has been particularly good to me. I am already in this world living eternal life. Now I go on to the fullness of life in Jesus Christ. Please live your lives in the growing knowledge and love of Him that I may truly say "I've simply gone on ahead". ' Until we meet again...'

Next Sunday it is All Saints and All Souls Day. We will be acknowledging loved ones who have died. There is a list to be read out if you wish to add names.

Legends dinner at 6pm next Sunday the 3rd. Sign up sheet in the foyer.

We are going to be holding a Garage Sale at Mavis house on Saturday 16th Nov and are looking for helpers to set up the week prior and at least 8 people to help on the day. If you can help with this please put your name down on the list or talk to Nancy Thank you in advance.

Craft Group - commencing 14th NOVEMBER 10am - 1pm. Bring your craft (sewing, painting, knitting, crochet, any others) and enjoy a cuppa with Morning Tea supplied. You can BYO lunch if you would like. Contact person is Jenny Wilson
