Revelation 7.12

Prayer of the Day

Everlasting God,
you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order the ministries of angels and mortals:
grant that, as your holy angels stand before you in heaven, so at your command
they may help and defend us here on earth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

A Reading from the Book of Daniel

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
and the books were opened.
As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Daniel 7.9-10, 7.13-14

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

I will give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart:
even before the gods will I sing your praises.

I will bow down toward your holy temple
and give thanks to your name:
because of your faithfulness and your loving-kindness,
for you have made your name and your word
supreme over all things.

At a time when I called to you, you gave me answer:
and put new strength within my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord:
for they have heard the words of your mouth;
And they shall sing of the ways of the Lord:
that the glory of the Lord is great.

For though the Lord is exalted, he looks upon the lowly:
and he comprehends the proud from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of danger,
yet will you preserve my life:
you will stretch out your hand against the fury of my enemies, and your right hand shall save me.

The Lord will complete his purpose for me:
your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever;
do not forsake the work of your own hands.

A Reading from the Book of Revelation

And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon.
The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming,
‘Now have come the salvation and the power
and the kingdom of our God
and the authority of his Messiah,
for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down,
who accuses them day and night before our God.

But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.

Rejoice then, you heavens
and those who dwell in them!
But woe to the earth and the sea,
for the devil has come down to you
with great wrath,
because he knows that his time is short!’

Revelation 12.7-12a

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Philip found Nathanael and said to him, ‘We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.’ Nathanael said to him, ‘Can anything good come out of Nazareth?’ Philip said to him, ‘Come and see.’ When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, ‘Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!’ Nathanael asked him, ‘Where did you come to know me?’ Jesus answered, ‘I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.’ Nathanael replied, ‘Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!’ Jesus answered, ‘Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.’ And he said to him, ‘Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.’

John 1.45-51

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Dean's Desk

Today at 10am we'll be dedicating the new grand piano. Don't miss our special ASRC concert today at 2pm by Zachary Dunbar!

At our recent Care and Culture team meeting we reflected on some of the challenges around communication. This is one of the strategic areas of focus for this year.

Thank you to everyone who is on a roster, and who is willing to share their gifts and talents with our whole community. This is a reminder that if you're rostered on for a duty and can't make that commitment, please could you arrange for someone else to take that duty and then let me know about the swap? A text to my mobile number is fine. We've had lots of gaps in rosters recently, and if we don't know in advance that you're unable to come, it means a mad scramble at the last minute to cover absences.

The Care and Culture team really want to be able to express our care and concern for our church community. Sometimes people can be absent from church for weeks and we don't know why! If you end up in hospital or housebound unexpectedly for any reason, do reach out to me, Heather, Kate, Kaye, Kathy or Trish, so that we can visit if you'd like, or at least pray for you. It might be useful to have our numbers (perhaps a pew sheet?) somewhere handy so that if you're unable to contact us yourself, one of your friends or family can do so on your behalf.

A reminder that next Sunday 5th our clocks go forward an hour at 2am as daylight saving starts. Barb Logan will be our guest preacher for St Francis and St Claire.

This week we are launching an experimental change to our music programme. With Jessica finishing year 12 this year, Chapter has been looking at what might be possible for next year. We will begin advertising for four lay clerk positions (one each to lead the parts SATB), and choral scholars who are interested in starting a Cathedral Choir. If you know of any young people who are keen to sing, please put them in touch with me!

A Busy Saturday 4th October:

Avon, Stratford are having their Avon Anglican Family Fun Fair which includes a Family Pet Show, commencing at 10am.

St John's Maffra Anglican Cake Stall and Boot Sale commences at 9am.

The Sale City Band are also having their concert at the Wedge at 7.30pm.

Mitchell is guest percussionist.

Reminder Day Light saving starts next week, so turn your clocks forward.

Many thanks to the busy bees in the front and back gardens this week. They have mowed, whipper snipped, pruned roses, weeded, mulched or removed the waste then delivered and spread more mulch. Over 8 cubic metres of mulch hopefully will slow the weeds. Thank you to Rob T, Sally and grandson Charlie, Michell, Peter, and Christine.

Nancy also removed months of dust from the cathedral window ledges and many other places. If you could spare some time to take over this role (Ro left) please let Christine know.

Wendy was also sorting books, although only a slight trickle of incoming books lately. The container is hungry for more, spread the word!

Thank you to all who are catering, or helping with the concert today. Big Job!

A gentle reminder please ensure all doors are locked when you leave the Cathedral, and the ones near the offices/ new back door must always remain locked.

In memory of Heather Castles
Roger Doyle
Beryl Morris ALCM

Today at 10am we celebrate, recognize, remember and thank these three very musical and music loving people.

Heather and Roger both left us a bequest, and Paul and Christine donated money in memory of their mother Beryl.

We thank them all for their generosity which enabled us to purchase this magnificent grand piano. Please light a candle in their memory, or in memory of anyone you know who has enriched your life with music.

Rare Yamaha C5A(PE) Conservatory Standard Grand Piano ~ (1995)

This extremely rare find in Australia, the C5E(PE) was a limited edition piano manufactured in the original Yamaha piano factory in Hamamatsu, Japan.

At 212cm in length, 12cm longer than a standard C5 of the time or current CX5 model. The C5E was released with upgraded bridges, soundboard and string scale. A popular choice among musicians, music teachers, and recording studios and is known for its rich, warm sound and exceptional touch sensitivity, which make it ideal for a variety of musical styles, from classical to jazz.

Designed as a concert standard instrument the C5E was carefully engineered to mimic a concert grand piano in tone and sound quality.

Widely regarded as one of the best conservatory standard home grand pianos that Yamaha ever produced, a brand new comparable Japanese made Yamaha C5X grand piano now costs in excess of $75,000 AUD

The Asylum Seeker Resource Centre (ASRC)

ASRC is an independent not for profit whose programs support and empower over 7,000 people seeking asylum each year to maximise their physical, mental and social wellbeing. They don't take Federal Government funding, and much of their financial resources come from the community.

If you are not able to attend the concert, we are accepting donations, or you can donate directly to the ASRC.

August Mission of the Month: CMS

The Church Missionary Society (CMS-UK) was founded in England in 1799 by a small group of Anglican evangelicals with a passion for worldwide gospel outreach. They included John Newton, who wrote Amazing Grace, and William Wilberforce, who was a leader in abolishing the slave trade in England. This passion for people to hear the gospel saw CMS-UK turn its attention to Australia, beginning in 1825. CMS Australia now has six state branches.

The purpose of CMS is to 'work with churches to set apart godly people as long-term cross-cultural gospel workers.' Their mission is to 'reach gospel-poor peoples for Christ; equip Christians as leaders in the church and the world; and engage churches in cross-cultural mission'. CMS works in many countries around the world. For more information, see the mission board in the foyer or go to <https://cms.org.au/>. You can also make a donation via the website, or by placing funds in an envelope, marking it CMS, and placing in the offertory at church.

We will be collecting Christmas presents again for Anglicare soon.

We are collecting donations of non perishable food items all year for the local public school breakfast club. UHT Milk, jam, breakfast cereal, tinned fruit, and fruit cups, muesli bars, Prima size fruit juice. Rather than have a specific month to collect donations, this will be ongoing. See box in foyer.
