Cathedral Parish Vision: *People of Christian faith –
Encouraging connection between the Divine and the everyday.*

12th October
Pentecost 18

Sentence from Scripture

What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Psalm 116.12–14

Prayer of the Day

O God, you have made heaven and earth
and all that is good:
help us to delight in simple things and to rejoice always in the richness of your bounty;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

Our parish is committed to ensuring our centres of worship and outreach are safe places for all, especially children and vulnerable people.

We have a duty of care to protect all who participate in the life of the church from abuse. We have zero tolerance for abuse of any kind.

If you are concerned about your own or somebody else's safety, or have witnessed behaviour that makes you feel uncomfortable you can contact the Deputy Director of Professional Standards in the Gippsland Diocese, Julie Reilly Mobile: 0456 572 589 Email: julie@kooyoora.org.au You may also like to talk to the Dean or the Lay Canons, or if this is a really serious matter, go directly to the police, and then to the above.

A Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 66.1-11

O shout with joy to God, all the earth:

sing to the honour of his name,
and give him glory as his praise.

Say to God 'How fearful are your works:

because of your great might your enemies shall cower before you.'

All the earth shall worship you:

and sing to you, and sing praises to your name.

Come then and see what God has done:

how terrible are his dealings with the children of Adam.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they crossed the river on foot:
then were we joyful because of him.
By his power he rules for ever,
his eyes keep watch on the nations:
and rebels shall never rise against him.
O bless our God, you peoples:
and cause his praises to resound,
Who has held our souls in life:
who has not suffered our feet to slip.
For you have proved us, O God:
you have tried us as silver is tried.
You brought us into the net:
you laid sharp torment on our loins.
You let our enemies ride over our heads,
we went through fire and water:
but you brought us out into a place of liberty.

A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

if we endure, we will also reign with him;

if we deny him, he will also deny us;

if we are faithless, he remains faithful—

for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening.

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2.8-15

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, ‘Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!’ When he saw them, he said to them, ‘Go and show yourselves to the priests.’ And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Luke 17.11-19

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Desk The dean is unwell this weekend and apologises for her absence, and no message from her. Today's Chapter meeting has been postponed.

Unfortunately SPAM is sending emails and texts asking for help always from REV Keren, not 'The Very Rev' Please ignore them.

We are now in the new Financial year, so needing AGM reports. Please email Christine or the Church email if you need to write one.

Sarah Gover, Josh Hasan, and Ken Spackman will be ordained as Deacons in the Church of God at St Paul's this Saturday 18th October at 11am. We are catering for the light lunch for up to 200 people. We require cakes and slices. Please help our catering team by supplying a cake or slice. and bringing it to the Cathedral on Saturday morning. Thank you for your help. Please let Kaye know, or write your name and how much you are bringing on the sheet in the foyer.

Sunday October 26th at St Paul's

Hymn Fest at 2pm with The Traralgon City Band. See back page. And share pamphlets with those you know.

Evensong at 5pm. This will be celebrating the 175th Anniversary of ABM.

The Bishop of London - The Rt Revd and Rt Hon Dame Sarah Mullally, DBE - is to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury.

Bishop Richard asks us to join him in giving thanks to God for this significant appointment and praying for Bishop Sarah as she prepares to be installed as Archbishop of Canterbury in March next year.

Property news: The hall is beautifully resurfaced, however still rather smelly! We are walking on it this week, but having morning tea in the foyer. PLEASE do not drag chairs or tables on the floor as it will really mark it.

If you were not able to attend the concert, we are still accepting donations, or you can donate directly to the ASRC.

Greetings and prayers from Melanesia. It is a blessing to have been invited by ACoM, through the office of the General Secretary, to share with you a brief reflection about ABM as it prepares to celebrate its 175th Anniversary on 29 October, 2025. From 2005 to 2008, I served with the ACoM Board of Mission as Mission Secretary. My experience and memory of working as a friend in partnership with the then ABM Executive Director, Linda Kurti, was very good – a real blessing in Christ. I learnt a lot from Linda and the Rev Dr John Deane. I remember well my visit to Sydney in September 2006 - a weeklong look and learn experience. Taking their Sunday service of Holy Communion and preaching at the Anglican Church of St James was and is a living memory for me. I can honestly say those four years helped to prepare me well for my later calling as the 5th Bishop of Malaita, ACoM. And after 14 years as a servant to the Missio Dei in Malaita Diocese, Melanesia, I am happily retired. In Christ, Sam Sahu

ABM 175th Anniversary Prayer

Loving God, friend of this ancient and beautiful land;

land we call home, land that calls us home.

Bless the Anglican Board of Mission as we participate in your healing work.

We honour our history.

We repent of our failings.

We commit to your future.

May we nurture relationships of love.

May we craft stories of hope.

May we contribute to communities of justice.

Grant us the wisdom to hear your voice, the courage to follow where you lead, the humility to listen to those we encounter.

May we be blessed by those we Partner with, and be a blessing to them.

We ask these things in the names of the three that are one.

Creator, Redeemer, Companion. Amen.

ACTinG workshops: Spiralling into active hope

Where is real hope for humanity and all creation? What is the root cause of the sustainability crisis, and how can Christians respond?

What might help us to act in hope?

ACTinG offers a creative workshop (led by Cath Connelly and Jan Down) in three locations: St Nicholas Lakes Entrance: Thursday 16 October, 1 – 4 pm

St Paul's Anglican Cathedral, Sale: Saturday 8 November, 1 – 4 pm

Please RSVP for catering purposes and to find out

Craft mornings Thursdays 10 – 1

Every Thursday, come and join us for a cuppa and chat while doing your craft work. Things to do are knitting beanies for the seamen, making your own birthday/Christmas card, sewing and any other craft. Share your ideas or learn from others. No experience needed help is always on hand..

October Mission of the Month: BCA

‘Bush Church Aid is all about Aid to the Church in the Bush.

Aid through partnering with Anglican Dioceses and other Christian organisations to provide biblical gospel ministry focused on the life-changing message of Jesus.

Aid through sending workers to rural, regional, and remote parts of Australia to share this gospel with people no matter where they live.

Aid through supporting these bush locations in prayer from countless supporters across Australia.

Aid through providing a network of experienced clergy and volunteers to pastorally care for these gospel workers and their families.

You could say that our heart beats faster for sharing Jesus with the bush!’

In Gippsland we support Jude and Andy Benton in the Croajingolong Parish. See the latest praise and prayer points from Jude on the Missions Board. If you would like to donate to BCA, please put funds in an envelope, mark BCA, and add to the collection on Sunday. Or you can donate online – go to <https://www.bushchurchaid.com.au/> and click on ‘Give’.

We will be collecting Christmas presents again for Anglicare soon.

CATHEDRAL MUSICIANS

Expression of Interest

St Paul's Anglican Cathedral, Sale, is the mother church of the Anglican Diocese of Gippsland. The Cathedral has a long tradition of Christian worship supported and enhanced by music.

The Cathedral invites Expressions of Interest
for the following roles:

Choral Lay Clerks: experienced singers and choral musicians to lead singing in the Cathedral, as soloists and choral section leaders

Choral Scholars: school-aged, developing choral singers to serve as a Cathedral Choir for special services and occasions

Organ Scholar: an experienced keyboard musician who wishes to develop experience skills in playing the Cathedral's pipe organ

For detailed information regarding these roles contact:

The Very Reverend Keren Terpstra

Dean, St Paul's Anglican Cathedral
