Sentence from Scripture

Will not God grant justice to those who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? Luke 18.7–8

Prayer of the Day

O Lord,
tireless guardian of your people,
teach us to rely, day and night, on your care.
Drive us to seek your justice and your help,
and support our prayer lest we grow weary,
for in you alone is our strength.
We make our prayer through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

A Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the Lord , when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals.

And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord .

In those days they shall no longer say:

‘The parents have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge.’

But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord , when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord .

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord : I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord ’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord ; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more. Jeremiah 31.27-34

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119.97-104

Lord, how I love your law:

it is my meditation all the day long.

Your commandments have made me
wiser than my enemies:

for they remain with me for ever.

I have more understanding than all my teachers:

for I study your commands.

I am wiser than the aged:

because I have kept your precepts.

I have held back my feet from every evil path:

that I might keep your word;

I have not turned aside from your judgements:

for you yourself are my teacher.

How sweet are your words to my tongue:

sweeter than honey to my mouth.

Through your precepts I get understanding:

therefore I hate all lying ways.

A Reading from The Second Letter to Timothy

Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, and my suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

2 Timothy 3.10 - 4.5

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming." ' And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?' He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income." But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'

Luke 18.1-14

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Desk

Congratulations to Josh, Sarah and Ken on their ordination as deacons in the Church of God yesterday. It was a great occasion, with a joyful cathedral full of 170 folk. Many thanks to all our cathedral team for making this a welcoming space for our diocesan family: to our welcomers, our Lay Readers who served, our catering team, Caroline who stepped in to lead the singing, and those who helped to set up and pack down. These moments are always wonderful celebrations, a real highlight in our life as the cathedral for our diocese.

Next Sunday will also be a big day, with a Hymnfest featuring the Traralgon Band at 2pm, followed by Evensong for ABM's 175th Anniversary at 5pm. Do come to either or both if you're able!

Chapter will meet on Saturday 25th from 2-4pm. Please pray for us as we meet, preparing for the AGM. At the Annual Meeting we'll be launching the five year strategic plan we've been developing all year. I'll aim to write briefly about it over the coming few weeks in my Dean's Desk.

Lastly, thanks for your prayers this last week as I've recovered from a virus.

Keren

Unfortunately SPAM is sending emails and texts asking for help always from REV Keren, not 'The Very Rev' Please ignore them.

We are now in the new Financial year, so needing AGM reports. Please email Christine or the Church email if you need to write one.

The Bishop of London - The Rt Revd and Rt Hon Dame Sarah Mullally, DBE - is to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury.

Bishop Richard asks us to join him in giving thanks to God for this significant appointment and praying for Bishop Sarah as she prepares to be installed as Archbishop of Canterbury in March next year.

Newly Ordained Deacons

the Reverends Josh Hasan, Sarah Gover and Ken Spackman.

Thank you to the very hard working kitchen staff, those who provided food, the men who moved table and chairs, Pam who has commenced dusting the cathedral this week, Jan who polished brass, Julie who helped with flowers, all the men who worked around the grounds, and our exiting resident cleaner and mower extraordinaire, Rob T (More next week!) and all the others who served in any way. Even the Bishop was spotted cleaning pew cushions with the vacuum cleaner!

ABM 175th Anniversary Prayer

Loving God, friend of this ancient and beautiful land;
land we call home, land that calls us home.

Bless the Anglican Board of Mission as we participate in your healing work.

We honour our history.

We repent of our failings.

We commit to your future.

May we nurture relationships of love.

May we craft stories of hope.

May we contribute to communities of justice.

Grant us the wisdom to hear your voice, the courage to follow where you lead,
the humility to listen to those we encounter.

May we be blessed by those we Partner with, and be a blessing to them.

We ask these things in the names of the three that are one.

Creator, Redeemer, Companion. Amen.

ACTinG workshops: Spiralling into active hope

Where is real hope for humanity and all creation? What is the root cause of the sustainability crisis, and how can Christians respond?

What might help us to act in hope?

October Mission of the Month: BCA

‘Bush Church Aid is all about Aid to the Church in the Bush.

Aid through partnering with Anglican Dioceses and other Christian organisations to provide biblical gospel ministry focused on the life-changing message of Jesus.

Aid through sending workers to rural, regional, and remote parts of Australia to share this gospel with people no matter where they live.

Aid through supporting these bush locations in prayer from countless supporters across Australia.

Aid through providing a network of experienced clergy and volunteers to pastorally care for these gospel workers and their families.

You could say that our heart beats faster for sharing Jesus with the bush!’

In Gippsland we support Jude and Andy Benton in the Croajingolong Parish. See the latest praise and prayer points from Jude on the Missions Board. If you would like to donate to BCA, please put funds in an envelope, mark BCA, and add to the collection on Sunday. Or you can donate online – go to <https://www.bushchurchaid.com.au/> and click on ‘Give’.

We will be collecting Christmas presents again for Anglicare soon.
