Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,

neither death nor life can separate us from
your love:

grant that we may serve you faithfully here

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you

A Reading from the Book of Daniel

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.' Daniel 7.1-3, 15-18

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 149

O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:

O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

Let them praise him in the dance:

let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people:

he adorns the meek with his salvation.

Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:

let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,
To execute vengeance on the nations:
and chastisement upon the peoples,
To bind their kings in chains:
and their nobles with fetters of iron,
To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:
such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.
Praise the Lord.

A Reading from The Letter to the Ephesians

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all Ephesians 1.11-23

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:
'Blessed are you who are poor,
 for yours is the kingdom of God.
'Blessed are you who are hungry now,
 for you will be filled.
'Blessed are you who weep now,
 for you will laugh.
'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

‘But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

‘Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

‘Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

‘Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

‘But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.

If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again.

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Luke 6.20-31

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Desk

Congratulations to the Traralgon Band, and thank you to everyone who came and was part of what was a fabulous and very stirring Hymnfest last Sunday! It was great to be able to sing hymn after hymn - most known, some new - with the backing of a brass band. After expenses, about $450 was able to be put towards the Music Foundation. Thanks, too, to the catering team who put on an ad hoc afternoon tea!

A big thank you to those who came to Evensong after the Hymnfest, celebrating ABM's 175 years. It was a fitting end to what was a long, if wonderful, day.

Today we observe All Saints/All Souls, remembering those who have died whom we have loved and lost and see no longer. Do feel free to add the names of your faithful departed to the list in the foyer - or if you're remote, text them to me for adding to the list. During the services there will be an opportunity to light candles to remember our loved ones.

This coming week we'll be celebrating the marriage of Jo Schmack and Kevin Pridmore on Friday - please pray for them. And on Saturday afternoon from 1pm will be the ACTinG workshop Spiralling into Hope.

A heads up, too, for the Liturgical Assistant gathering on Saturday 15th November at 10:30am. This will be a short refresher for our LAs and an opportunity to clarify any questions...

Lastly, note the bishop's pastoral letter about recent developments in the Anglican Communion. Feel free to talk to me or one of the ministry team about it.

ACTinG: Acting for Creation Together in Gippsland

ACTinG Workshop Saturday 8th November

Spiralling into active hope!

1–4pm at St Paul's Cathedral, Sale (including afternoon tea)

On a Saturday in central Gippsland, this time the ACTinG workshop is accessible to week-day workers as well as everyone else. Last chance to join in this creative workshop led by Cath Connelly and Jan Down – please let us know you are coming ASAP.

The workshop explores the root cause of the big inter-connected global problems: the pollution of oceans, soil and air; climate change; species losses and resource depletion. We look at how we can respond as Christians, what spiritual insights and practices can help us to act in hope, and what we can do to make a difference. And we bring a little creativity into the mix!

Please RSVP for catering purposes or to find out

The end of the pastoral Letter from Bishop Richard

Along with our sisters and brothers of other traditions across the one, holy, catholic and apostolic church, our Anglican identity is grounded first and foremost in Christ – the living Word of God – into whose everwounded body we are baptised, and in whose risen life God's future comes to meet us now, calling us into the fulness of truth which is always ahead of us in the one who is our way, our truth, and our life.

As our retiring Primate and outgoing Archbishop of Adelaide, Geoff Smith, said in his sermon for ABM's 175th Anniversary Evensong in Sydney last week, we don't know what the future holds, but we do know who holds it.

Surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, let us then run with perseverance the race that is set before us – Committed in Christ, Connecting in Service, Creative in Spirit – confident in our baptismal vocation to share in God's mission to the world in Christ: a world God so loves as to share in its brokenness, that all might know the wholeness which is creation's original blessing.

*Grace and peace,
Bishop Richard*

His full letter is available, but has also been emailed to all who receive the bulletin weekly via email.

Mission of the Month: Anglicare Christmas Toy Appeal

‘Anglicare Victoria's Christmas Toy Appeal has begun, and we hope to make Christmas a magical one, for every child in our care, from toddlers to teens. Donations to our Toy Appeal help to soften the impact of isolation that children and young people in out-of-home care will feel. Every dollar raised and gift received will go towards foster carers and the kids in their care, all the young people in our family services programs, and vulnerable families reaching out, at our emergency relief sites.’

You can donate toys by placing them in the basket under the Mission Board.

Anglicare asks for Brand new toys only (unwrapped).

They currently have a surplus of teddy bears and gifts for babies, but desperately need teen gifts. Or you can donate online at:
