Encouraging connection between the Divine and the everyday. Defence Sunday Pent22

Sentence from Scripture

‘I am the resurrection and the life,’ says the Lord.

‘Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.’ John 11.25–26

Prayer of the Day

God of all the living,

in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:

in the strength of this unshakeable promise, give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation. We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

A Reading from the Prophet Haggai

On the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month. In the second year of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the prophet Haggai, saying: Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the Lord ; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord ; work, for I am with you, says the Lord of hosts, according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear. For thus says the Lord of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendour, says the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the Lord of hosts. The latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the Lord of hosts. Haggai 1.15b - 2.9

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145. 1-5, 17-21

I will exalt you, O God my king:

I will bless your name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless you:

and praise your name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and wonderfully worthy to be praised:

his greatness is past searching out.

One generation shall praise your works to another:

and declare your mighty acts.

As for me, I will be talking of the glorious splendour of your majesty:

I will tell the story of your marvellous works.

The Lord is just in all his ways:

and faithful in all his dealings.

The Lord is near to all who call upon him:

to all who call upon him in truth.

He will fulfil the desire of those that fear him:

he will hear their cry, and save them.

The Lord preserves all those that love him:

but the wicked he will utterly destroy.

My mouth shall speak the praises of the Lord:

and let all flesh bless his holy name, for ever and ever.

A Reading from The Second Letter to the Thessalonians

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word. 2 Thessalonians 2.1-5, 13-17

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.' Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.' Then some of the scribes answered, 'Teacher, you have spoken well.' For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

Luke 20.27-40

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Desk

Today we welcome the Australian Military Wives Choir to our 10am service, who are joining us to observe Defence Force Sunday. We look forward to hearing their cheerful voices adding to our worship, as on this Sunday closest to Remembrance Day we think of those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the peace of our nation, those who are currently serving in the armed forces, and especially their partners/spouses and families.

On Friday we celebrated the marriage of Jo and Kevin Pridmore (Jo is Karl's daughter) in a lovely ceremony and enthusiastic reception, thankful that the weather held!

Yesterday Jan Down and Cath Connelly (Abbey Director) led a fabulous workshop "Spiraling into Hope". My takeaway was theological: we care for creation NOW because in every moment into the future God has already gone ahead of us to bring flourishing. The sessions were recorded, so hopefully at some point they will go up on the ACTinG website - well worth watching out for.

The annual meeting is three weeks away and we are calling for nominations. If you are thinking about it, or the Spirit might be tapping you on the shoulder, do fill out a form in the foyer and return it to me.

Chapter meets today; please pray for us as we meet.

Mission of the Month: Anglicare Christmas Toy Appeal

‘Anglicare Victoria's Christmas Toy Appeal has begun, and we hope to make Christmas a magical one, for every child in our care, from toddlers to teens. Donations to our Toy Appeal help to soften the impact of isolation that children and young people in out-of-home care will feel. Every dollar raised and gift received will go towards foster carers and the kids in their care, all the young people in our family services programs, and vulnerable families reaching out, at our emergency relief sites.’

You can donate toys by placing them in the basket under the Mission Board.

Anglicare asks for Brand new toys only (unwrapped).

They currently have a surplus of teddy bears and gifts for babies, but desperately need teen gifts. Or you can donate online at:
